

Serving Families With Special Needs

Julie Pi Evans

Julie Pi Evans Law Firm, PLLC

"Helping my son Ben navigate the world as a person with special needs has been the toughest but most rewarding experience of my life. I am honored to be part of Special Reach so I can help families like ours achieve their best lives."

Professional Profile:

Julie Pi Evans is a 1997 graduate of the University of Texas at Austin and a 2002 graduate of Rutgers Law School in New Jersey. She has been a member of the Texas State Bar since 2002. After moving to Houston, she worked for several small firms before starting her own firm, Julie Pi Evans Law Firm, PLLC in 2012. She was active in the Asian American Bar Association of Houston (AABA), serving as the Solo & Small Firm co-chair, and the Houston Bar Association (HBA), serving as chair of the Law Practice Management Section. She also co-chaired the HBA Special Olympics Committee and later received the Special Olympics Texas 2016 Outstanding Service from a Civic or Service Organization award. She was elected to become a fellow in the Texas Bar Foundation in 2013. In 2017, the family moved back to her hometown of San Antonio and settled in the Alamo Heights area. She joined the Alamo Heights School Foundation in 2021. She is also currently a member of the Bexar County Woman's Bar Association, the San Antonio Bar Association and the Women and the Law section of the State Bar of Texas. She and her husband, Chris Evans, have been married since 2005 and have two children, Benjamin & Caroline. Benjamin loves his Life Skills classroom at the Alamo Heights High School and Caroline attends the Junior School and enjoys playing Viola, Piano and plays Soccer.
